

ECON 0150 | Spring 2025 | Homework 12

Due: Sunday, April 20, 5PM

This homework builds on your previous submissions and moves your final project forward by developing slides to communicate your findings. You'll work with your assigned project partner(s) to complete this assignment and upload your pdf slides separately.

Checklist

1. Do your slides contain a clear research question?
2. Do your slides mention your data source(s)?
3. Do your slides contain visuals of your main variables of interest?
4. Do your slides contain a visual of the main relationship of interest?
5. Do your slides contain your statistical model?
6. Do your slides describe the results of your statistical model in a clear and understandable way?
